Weston Bergmann is the Lead Investor of BetaBlox, a for-equity business incubator that was started in Kansas City in 2012. Since inception, they've helped more than 100 entrepreneurs get their startups off the ground. Their success led them to expand to their second city, Tulsa, OK, in July of 2016. The expansion was possible thanks to a partnership with the Oklahoma Innovation Institute. Weston is also an angel investor having invested in everything from restaurants to virtual reality.

David Jeter has worked for BOK Financial since 2004. He has served as the Senior Vice President and Regional Manager for Business Banking in Tulsa, Oklahoma, since 2012. Prior to Banking, David served as District Manager for The Charles Machine Works, in Perry, Ok and was responsible for a nine state territory in the Northern U.S.

David has a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Economics from Oklahoma State University and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Oklahoma, Price

College of Business.

David was named one of Tulsa's "40 Under 40" by the Tulsa Business Journal in 2009. He currently serves as Treasurer for the Tulsa Regional Tourism Executive Board and is the incoming Chairman of the Tulsa Sports Commission. He was a previous member of the Board of Directors for the Bartlesville Chamber of Commerce and the Bartlesville YMCA. He has also volunteered with Junior Achievement and Habitat for Humanity.
